

Synthetic values define the file and interpolation contract; they are not experimental evidence.